ONLY 15 OUT OF 26 IN NORFOLK COUNTY IN GOOD CONDITION. ed Animals Condemned-The Grand Jury Criticised-Indicted for Taking

Letters Not His Own. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] Nonrols, July 23 .- In making his rounds inspecting the dairies of Norfolk county, as ordered by the Board of Health, Dr. F. M. Morgan found but fifteen out of twen-ty-six dairies inspected in June in cleanly and healthful condition. All the larger dairies were conducted carefully and with great degree of cleanliness, the smaller establishments being those neglected. Among the cows two diseased animals were found and condemned. For want of funds at the command of the board the services of Dr. Morgan were dispensed with last night. The daily average of milk supplied to this community from Norfolk county is 768 gallons.

CASES CONTINUED. The parties arrested for engaging in the second act of the prize-fight and smashing the head and breaking the nose of Wash. Capps in front of the Washington House were before Police-Justice East and their

The action of the grand jury of Norfolk county in simply indicting Cooke and Woodward for grand larceny, the men who assaulted and robbed the young man Frank Williams, of Roanoke, occasions considerable criticism. There never was clearer highway robbery and so the warrant of arrest charged. Williams was rant of arrest charged. Williams was rant of arrest charged. Williams was brugged with whiskey and $220 taken from SENT ON FOR "TAKING" LETTERS.

THE NAVAL INQUIES.

The naval court of inquiry finished the testimony of Americus Smith this morning and was followed by W. S. Wilson, one of the laborers in the steam engineering and was followed by N. S. Wisson, each the laborers in the steam engineering store. All of the important evidence will be in by to-morrow. The court will determine whether there is sufficient evidence to warrant a court-martial, and if we'll recommend it.

The brig Edith, recently sank in the Pa-tapsco river and raised by the Merritt Wrecking Company, was towed here to day disabled by loss of shentling, and will have to be repaired before being towed to

Owing to the breaks not working an incoming train on the Norfolk and Western road to-day collided with another train and both engines were damaged. A freight train of the same road jumped the track near Suffolk last night.

ondence of the Richmond Dispatch. Petersburg, Va., July 23.—The big Alliance meeting to be held at Stannton on Monday next will be a gathering of great importance. Business vital to the order will be considered. The State Legislative Council will meet on that day and a pubble address will be delivered by the national lecturer, Mr. J. F. Willetts. The Legislative Council is composed of representatives of the ten district councils in the State. All the district and county lecturers are also expected to be present. Low rates to this meeting have been secured on the several railroads and the attendance is expected to be large.

GREAT ACTIVITY.

The Alliance is very actively at work Petershung, Va., July 23.—The big Al-ance meeting to be held at Staunton on

The Alliance is very actively at work throughout this State. District and coun-ty lecturers are almost daily speaking, the State lecturer is filling around of appoint-ments for public speaking, which covers ments for public spensing, which covers every county in the State, and arrangements have been made to have the services of Assistant-National-Lecturer Benjamin Terrell for thirty days after August 5th, who will speak at the most prominent points in the State. The public will doubtless soon be informed in full of the demands of the Alliance.

Wice-President Beverley, of the State Alliance, will shortly publish a carefully-prepared article on the sub-Treasury measure, which will reflect the views of the Virginia Alliance on this subject.

The following editorial paragraph on "Free Coinage," which appears in the Alliance Farmer of to-day, tells the drift of the sentiment among Virginia farmers on this important question: "We congratulate the friends of this measure on the evidences daily coming in that the tide of public opinion is bearing it high and running in fast. The Democracy of the great State of Ohio are now fighting under a banner on which 'Free Coinage' is inscribed in big letters—big enough to be seen all over the Union. The same flag, or one like it, will be carried from Maine to California in 1892."

Mr. George T. Clark, an old and honored citizen of Surry, has been appointed superintendent of schools for the county and will quality as such before Judge Rives. FREE COINAGE.

A very heavy rain fell in portions of Prince George county yesterday afternoon. The storm was only slightly felt here.

Mr. M. A. Cogbill has been elected delegate from the Chesterfield County Alliance to the State Alliance Convention in Richmond, and Mr. William E. Gill is his alternate. Dr. J. P. Goodwyn will represent Dinwiddle, with F. W. Lathrop as alternate.

Opinion is gaining ground that the conatruction of a railway from this city to blandford cemetery and extending thence to the Crater and the adjacent battle-fields would be a paying enterprise from the very start, and that great financial success awaits the men who will build the road.

THE PHILLIPS-SMITH HOMICIDE.

per's Jury—Phillips in Jail.
[Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.]
ALEXANDRIA, VA., July 23.—An inquest was held to-day by Dr. R. Purvis, coroner of Alexandria city, upon the body of George S. Smith, whose death at the hands of Jefferson Phillips, near the city market on Wednesday night, was chronicled in the Dasparca this morning. Three wounds appear in the body—one in the right breast, one in the right wrist, and another made by a ball passing entirely through the body.

It appeared that Smith and Phillips had had some previous difficulty and that about half-past 9 o'clock on Tuesday night while Phillips was talking to Mr. Omson, of Loudonn county, in front of the "El Dorado" restaurant he saw Mr. Smith talking to Mr. Hill on the market corner opposite. He immediately crossed the street and calling to Smith, who faced him, drew a pistol and began firing. The first shot struck Smith in the breast and he turned and ran across Royal street. Phillips fired at him twice as he ran, each ball taking effect. Smith was carried into Schwab's restaurant and died there.

The jury returned a verdet that Smith came to his death by a pistol-shot fired by Phillips. Phillips is held in jail for the grand jury. He has retained Mr. S. G. Brent as his counsellor and declines to make his statement.

DEATH OF PROF. L. L. HOLLADAY.

Gay—His Brilliant Career.

(Special telegram to the Dispatch.)

Farmyille, Va., July 23.—Our community was shocked this morning by the announcement of the sudden death of Professor Lewis L. Holladay at Hampden-Sidney College, in which institution he has filled the chair of physical science for thirty-six years. He was in a perfect state of health last night to all appearances, and arising at the usual hour this morning, he complained it is said, of slight palpitation of the heart, and at 5 o'clock he was dead from angina pectoric. Professor Holladay was about fifty-nine years of age.

He was born in the county of Orange and graduated at Hampden-Sidney. Virginia, in 1853, taking the highest honor in a class composed of such men as Dr. Richard Mc-llwaine, now president of Hampden-Sidney; Dr. L. H. Blauton, now Chancellor of the. Central University, Ky.; Dr. M. L. Lacy, of. West Virginia, and others now distinguished in letters and theology. Upon his graduation he was appointed tutor in the college for one session and went thence to the University of Virginia, from which he was called after one session to fill the chair of physical science in the college made vacant by the resignation of Rev. Joseph L. Wilson, now professor in the Southwestern University at Clarks-ville, Tenn.

ville, Tenn. ADMIRED AND REDOVED. Professor Holladay was admired and beloved as it is the fortune of but few men to be by all who knew him, and thousands of his former pupils, whose hearts are sad at the announcement, recall the lofty Christian character, the conscientions, devoted teacher, and the modest but truly great man of science, whose loss creates such widespread mourning not only in Virginia, but wherever Hampden-Sidney's sons may be.

IN THE COLLEGE CEMETERY. His funeral will take place to-morrow morning at 11 o'clock and his remains laid to rest in the College cemetery.

DEATH OF DR. JOHN CLOPTON.

tive Mason and Knight Templar. nondence of the Richmond Dispatch.1 WILLIAMSBURG, VA., July 23.—Dr. John Clopton died last night at half-past 9 o'clock after an illness of several weeks. The Doctor himself a short time before his death stated that he was suffering with a severe attack of the grip, which cul-minated in his death. He came here from Richmond about 1868 as assistant obysi-cian to Dr. A. E. Peticoias, at the Eastern Lunatic Asylum, and remained there until the 15th of April, 1850, when he resigned.

DURING THE WAR. DURISG THE WAR.

He was surgeon during the war for the Fourth Texas regiment. H. was an active Mason, being master of the lodge here for some years, and was district deputy in that order at the kine of his death.

The funeral services will be from the Eniscopal church to marrow morning at oscopal church to-morrow morning at 30 o'clock, and the interment will take place in Olive-Branch burving-ground, in James City county, with Masonic honors. He was a Knight Templar, being at one the a member of a Richmond command-ery. His age was fifty-six years. He leaves five children (three boys and two girls), all of whom are orphans of tender years, his wife having preceded him to the grave about twelve months. PERSONAL.

Ez-Mayor T. McIvor Southall left last evening for Newport News, where he may decide to locate. May success attend him in his new field of labor.

Dr. Leonard Henley went down to War-wick this morning to attend a Farmers' Alliance gathering. The Doctor is promi-mently mentioned for the Albance nominafor the House of Delegates from the Peninsula.

The Board of Directors for the Insane Asylum is in quarterly session to-day. Among the matters being discussed by them is the Kearns case. It is thought that legal complications will be the result of this decision.

Peterseurg, Va., July 23.—On June 28th a lady named Maggie French entered a complaint of abduction against a young man named Charles Taylor, the charge being that he had abducted her daughter. Ross French, the girl French being under the age of sixteen. Mrs. French had only been a resident of this city for a month, having come here from Norfolk. Taylor had been boarding with her in Norfolk and came here along with the French family.

This evening a telegram was received from the Sheriff of Salem stating that he had arrested Charles Taylor and a young girl who said her name was Rosa Ramsay, and they were held to await the action of the authorities. An officer will leave here to-night for Salem armed with the warrants for their arrest.

the National Executive Committee of the People's party to the citizens of the United States, It occupies four closelyprinted small octavo pages. It sets out with a general statement of grievances, which occupies about one fourth of the document. In this statement are such phrases as the following:

"The Declaration of Independence from the arrogance of British politicians must be supplemented by a declaration of independence from the frightful nower of concentrated wealth. We consider violence in settling disputes as unworthy of a civilized nation, and for this reason we have organized a party of the people to overthrow the tyrants who have robbed and are continuing to rob us of that to which they have no moral right."

The document then goeson with a specification of evils in the matter of land, labor, and money, and in conclusion suggests the remedy. The concluding paragraph ap-
